DSC Presidents Notes

November 2022

Chris and I just returned from Brown County State Park. The leaves were in full color, and I am reminded that like the onset of fall, when we leave behind sunny days, change is often for the good.

I want to thank everyone who came to the Buddy and Pals social or the October general membership meeting and shared your ideas for growing the club. We heard many great ideas for advertising, improving our social media outreach and local engagement. We are going to start with Mary Golding's idea to increase our presence by having a drink at Valparaiso's newest restaurant and bar, Trailyard at 2551 Clifford Rd. Valparaiso, Wednesday November 2nd at 6pm. Hope you can join us and bring a friend.

Updates on our ski trips - We have just about met our goal to sell out Winter Park and Mammoth. Winter Park has 38 going. That's a record in recent memory! Mammoth has 21 going and will be sharing one hotel room with a lady from the Nomads. This trip is sold out.

For the Midwest trips, we added a drive-up trip to Bittersweet or Timber ridge on January 7th. Join our Facebook page to keep abreast of the details.

The training program January 18-20th at Chestnut has an 11/15 deadline for the early bird price. See the flyer within this newsletter. If you want to continue skiing or just join us for the weekend, contact Chestnut directly to reserve your room.

Our bus trip with Nomads March 10-12th to Shanty Creek is on sale now and promises to be a lot of fun! We have over 20 going so far.

Finally, our holiday party will be at The Franklin House, 58 S. Campbell St. Valparaiso, on November 21st 6:30pm .. Heavy appetizers will be provided. We are going to the Northwest Indiana Symphony on Wednesday, December 7th to ring in the holidays together. Hope to see you there!
